'THE MAGIC OF THE DOURO' ON CRUISE IN'S EXCLUSIVE CHARTER!

A Magical Opportunity To Experience 4 Wonderful Nights on the brand new 5-star Douro Serenity

After failing to obtain a charter last year following 10 successful years, the opportunity to take one in August on the brand new ship Douro Serenity was a 'no brainer'. Obviously it's more expensive for flights and hotels but the thought of a luxury 'adult only' holiday in a peak month is the dream! The Douro is truly one of the great cruising rivers of Europe. It is set in the most gorgeous, vibrantly picturesque countryside. It threads its way through gorges and massive, fascinating locks that leave you spellbound as to how they work. There are vine-covered hillsides everywhere you look, with sleepy villages soaking up the sun. The weather is invariably wonderful. But there's one thing most travel agents don't tell you about the Douro. It is a short cruise river. It is only navigable for a comparatively short distance. That's why Cruise In, who know the river well, have taken a charter for five days only. Five days is the absolutely perfect length of time to spend on the river itself. Douro Serenity is a luxury river vessel with 63 cabins of which 38 have french balconies. She offers a full-service cruise experience including a mixture of international and Portuguese cuisine, as well as a small onboard entertainment programme. There will also be optional shore excursions allowing you to explore and experience the region's unique history, culture and hospitality. Our night out with the Quinta de Arassada to visit our great friend Luis for dinner is just magical. Porto and Lisbon are both exciting cities, busy and fascinating, each with a highly individual character. To stay in either is the perfect compliment to the tranquil time spent on the river.
