exclusive to members of the inner circle club

DECEMBER 2018 • JANUARY 2019

Dear Friends,

Another Christmas and New Year are on the horizon, where does the time go? Sorting out the chaos of a cancelled river cruise in November due to low water, has meant that we had to curtail work on a large newsletter, so forgive us for a smaller edition. As always, we feature some of P&O, Celebrity, Royal Caribbean and Oceania cruises although, as you all know we sell everything. A small leaflet insert covers river cruises and event updates plus a scoop for Cruise In - a fantastic seven night cruise on an amazing new river ship!

See you all soon.....regards and best wishes

Cliff, Kim and the Crew at Cruise In

P&O GRATUITIES

Don't forget that all P&O sailings for cruises starting in early May 2019 include all tipping. Which makes their new sailings in 2020 as well as the remainder of 2019 amazing value.

ROYAL CARIBBEAN LAUNCHES CRUISES FOR 2020

What's new? Lots! Our main observation is that for our many friends who can only cruise from Southampton, Anthem of the Seas® is home-ported for the second time since launch. As part of the Quantum class® ships this will be a marvellous opportunity to try a new style of cruise. There are definitely touches that suggest more of a Celebrity style ship. She was launched in May 2015 and described as 'a high-tech high energy, gizmo - filled family - friendly resort', although, if you choose dates to avoid school holidays, I know you will love every moment. Having spent 3 nights on the launch of Sister ship Ovation of the Seas® in 2016, I must say it was stunningly different to other classes of ship and I came away knowing this was the one for me when it wasn't in Asia.

Look at the itineraries for Anthem in 2020 and book before Christmas, to get the best prices with a reduced deposit of £75pp. Obviously, there are many ships and itineraries to choose from. So look on their site for all up-to-date information!
